Sunday Ball for Jersey.

Sunday passed the house of assembly

by a vote of 55 to 15. A public hearing was given on the measure and many clergymen opposed the passage of the bill. The passage of the bill is particularly desired by Atlantic City, where injunctions were resorted to last year to prevent games on Sunday between the seashore team and major league aggregations.

before either side made a point, and it looked for a while like Company K would put up a hot fight. Many times during the game Company K had the ball under Company E's basket, but poor shooting and the strong backs of Company E. Ellsworth and fier, prevented them from coring. Cuvillier, who was always under Company K's basket, missed very few chances to score, making a total of twenty goals, breaking his record of Thursday night.

In the second half Company K changed their line-up, thinking they would win, and came bock in the game with vengeance, but it was all in vain, not a man half Tony Rose and Cuvillier split honors in tossing the most number of goals, each making eight baskets. Rose and Cuvillier made some clever shots, for which they were applauded by the enthusiastic crowd in the gallery. Hutton also came into the limelight in this half by making has the makings of a real pitcher if put on the slab more regularly. Will Rube Vickers bring the Orioles good luck? Every time the Rube is turned back to the minors he brings a championship to the club he joins.

Stallings ought to work Quinn a whole:

ot oftener this season. The big fellow

Cravath, after being let out by the Sox and .. ashington clubs, hit elegantly in the American Association. Nobody has claimed him, though, and he will probably remain in the minors. Says the headline of a Pittsburg paper:

'Deacon Phillippi Talks Sound Sense. And yet we fail to find anywhere in the article where the old fellow says he isn't as good as he was years and years ago. Fred Klobedantz, the old National and Eastern leaguer, will cover the initial bage for the Bridgeport, Conn., nine this season. Klobedantz worked on the mound for several years and made quite a reputation as a twirler. All the Boston Red Sox have already signed, with the exception of one raw pitcher, Anderson. He is not holding land the management of the Elmira club out. Arellanes, last season's star pitcher, of the New York State League.
